CETA POLICIES

The following policies apply to exhibitors and all Convention attendees. Full cooperation will ensure a highly successful show for everyone:

- CETA prohibits solicitation on the show floor except by representatives of exhibiting firms. Violations will result in fines and other penalties, as described within the Association's policies.
- Attending firms and their employees are not permitted to open a hospitality suite, schedule a meeting, a meal function or any other event during the official exhibit Hours. Authorized activities are those that take place on the Convention floor only. Violators may be suspended from membership and future participation, and/or subject to other penalties as described within the Association's policies.
- Video or Still Photography of an exhibitor's booth is not allowed. Exceptions are the press or the official CETA Show Photographer, or as approved by CETA Show Management.
- Children 12 years or older may enter the show floor.

This signed registration form returned to CETA is an offer and CETA reserves the right to accept or reject the offer based on the registrant's eligibility to attend. Registrant will be notified by mail of acceptance or rejection.
